"The British Empire was trying desperately to hold on to its colonial possessions by any means... and the foul would often override the fair."

JUST AN ORDINARY LAWYER

A PLAY, WITH SONGS

He is Britain's first Black judge, a fine singer and keen cricket lover.

Finding himself stranded in the Heart of Empire, Nigerian Tunji Sowande muses on Black liberation struggles worldwide. He Insists he is no political aficionado, but is content to contribute through his music and songs.
